Access Policy & Plan

Growing together, learning together

Monitoring and Review

It is the responsibility of our Governing Body to agree and monitor our policies. The Curriculum and Standards Team has this responsibility, though the day to day management of it is devolved to the Head Teacher.

As with all our policies, this was developed following a period of practice and consultation before being presented for Governors' consideration.

Mission Statement

'Here at St Mary's Church of England Primary School, through our Christian values, we aspire to nurture and educate the whole child: caring for their well-being, celebrating their individual talents and abilities whilst encouraging them to become lifelong learners. It is our aim that children, parents and school staff should work together towards this end.'

Equal Opportunities

At Tickhill St Mary's School we are committed to giving all our children every opportunity to achieve the highest of standards. We acknowledge the right of every individual to be treated fairly, with respect and to their individual needs regardless of appearance, age, race, gender identity, background, creed, attainment, ability or sexual orientation. We aim to fulfil this ideal through our policies and practice.

Christian Ethos

Tickhill St Mary's School is a Church of England School and, as such, we ensure that the Christian ethos is central to all our policies and practice.

Safeguarding Statement

St Mary's Primary School is committed to safeguarding the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff to adhere to this commitment.

Introduction

It is our intention to remove, as far as we can, those barriers which make it hard for children and adults with a disability to take part in the day to day life of our school and benefit from the educational experiences and services we provide.

We aim to ensure that our school is a welcoming place that understands and responds effectively to children and adults with disabilities and we recognise the importance of a review and planning procedure associated with continuous development and improvement.

The Equality Act 2010 defines disability as a 'physical or mental impairment which has a long-term and substantial adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'

This definition provides a relatively low threshold and includes more children than many realise: 'long-term' is defined as 'a year or more' and 'substantial' is defined as 'more than minor or trivial'. This definition includes sensory impairments such as those affecting sight or hearing, and long-term health conditions such as asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, and cancer. Some specified medical conditions, HIV, multiple sclerosis and cancer are all considered as disabilities, regardless of their effect. Children and young people with such conditions do not necessarily have Special Educational Needs (SEN), but there is a significant overlap between disabled children and young people and those with SEN.

The Equality Act 2010 sets out the legal obligations that schools, early years providers, post-16 institutions, local authorities and others have towards disabled children and young people:

- They must not directly or indirectly discriminate against, harass or victimise disabled children and young people
- They must not discriminate for a reason arising in consequence of a child or young person's disability
- They must make reasonable adjustments, including the provision of auxiliary aids and services, to ensure that disabled children and young people are not at a substantial disadvantage compared with their peers.
- This duty is anticipatory – it requires thought to be given in advance to what disabled children and young people might require and what adjustments might need to be made to prevent that disadvantage.
- Schools are allowed to treat disabled children / young people more favourably than non-disabled children / young people, and in some cases are required to do so, by making reasonable adjustments and making changes to practices to ensure, as far as is reasonably possible, that a disabled person can benefit from what the school has to offer to the same extent that a person without that disability can i.e. to put them on a more level footing with children / young people without disabilities
- Public bodies, including further education institutions, local authorities, maintained schools, maintained nursery schools, academies and free schools are covered by the public sector equality duty and, when carrying out their functions, must have regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and foster good relations between disabled and non-disabled children and young people. Public bodies also have specific duties under the public sector equality duty and must publish information to demonstrate their compliance with this general duty and must prepare and publish objectives to achieve the core aims of the general duty. Objectives must be specific and measurable.

The duties cover discrimination in the provision of services and the provision of education, including admissions and exclusions. All providers must make reasonable adjustments to procedures, criteria and practices and by the provision of auxiliary aids and services.

School governing bodies and proprietors must also publish information about the arrangements for the admission of disabled children, the steps taken to prevent disabled children being treated less favourably than others, the facilities provided to assist access of disabled children, and their accessibility plans.

The Responsible Body

The responsible body (the Governing Body) must prepare:

- an accessibility plan;
- further such plans at such times as may be prescribed.

An accessibility plan is a plan for, over a prescribed period:

St Mary's C.E. Primary and Nursery School
Access Policy & Plan

- increasing the extent to which disabled children / young people can participate in the school's curriculum;
- improving the physical environment of the school for the purpose of increasing the extent to which disabled children / young people are able to take advantage of education and associated services provided or offered by the school; and
- improving the delivery to disabled children / young people—
 - (i) within a reasonable time, and
 - (ii) in ways which are determined after taking account of their disabilities and any preferences expressed by them or their parents, of information which is provided in writing for children / young people who are not disabled.
- An accessibility plan must be in writing.
- During the period to which the plan relates, the responsible body must keep its accessibility plan under review and, if necessary, revise it.
- It is the duty of the responsible body to implement the accessibility plan.

Schools have had a duty to produce an accessibility plan since September 2002. These initial plans should have been in place by April 2003.

The Statutory Policies for Schools (Sept 2014) states that it is a requirement that maintained schools, academies, free schools, independent schools, sixth-form colleges, further education colleges and Pupil Referral Units must review their accessibility plan every three years. It also states that approval should be by the Governing Body however, they are free to delegate the approval right to a committee of the Governing Body, an individual governor or the Headteacher.

Children & Families Act (2014)

The Special Educational Needs & Disability Regulations (2014)

Formulating our Accessibility Plan

The priorities for the Accessibility Plan for our school were identified by a planning group who consisted of:

- SEN Governor
- Headteacher
- SEN Co-ordinator
- Bursar
- Child

Process

Our accessibility plan has been developed as follows:

1. Access audit and review of current activities completed
2. Actions to eliminate barriers identified (with short-term, medium term and long term targets)
3. Goals and targets set which can be measured & include time frames
4. Consultation with school staff, governors and other bodies i.e. parents/ carers,
5. The plan's contents checked
6. Publication of the plan
7. Implemented the plan and allocated adequate resources
8. Evaluated the plan every 3 years (with the accessibility plan under on-going review and revision as necessary).

In addition to this we will;

- continually review the environment of the school, the way we plan, prepare and deliver curriculum and the information we provide for children so that we can improve the access for both individuals and groups;
- work to provide an atmosphere where all children feel safe and valued;
- promote understanding of disability and work to show positive role models of people with a disability. We will avoid stereotypes and use language which emphasises the person rather than the disability.
- examine those parts of our active and extra-curricular activities which may have limited access for children with a disability and see if it is possible to provide learning experiences which promote similar development of knowledge and understanding.

Accessing the School's Accessibility Plan

Our Accessibility Plan will be available to view on our website (www.tickhillstmarys.co.uk). A paper copy will also be available from the school office.

Section 1 The school can deliver the curriculum to all children. Give details of items developed, current practise and things to be developed.

Statement	Fully	Partly	Not	Plan Prompt
Teachers and assistants have trained to teach and support disabled children. Staff are confident about meeting the needs of children with a disability.		x		Confident with the children we presently have. More training would be required should a child with a more pronounced disability joined us.
All school staff and the governors have had access to training on disability equality and inclusion.		x		Some training undertaken in this area.
We take advice to ensure our classrooms are optimally organised and resourced for disabled children.	x			Our classrooms are constantly evolving.
Positive images of people with different abilities are apparent in the classrooms and the school generally.		x		More could be done in this area. Book are carefully chosen to reflect the whole of society
Staff plan alternative ways of providing experience and understanding of parts of the curriculum. i.e. All children are encouraged to take part in music, drama and physical activities. Alternative forms of exercise are given in PE and games for disabled children.	x			Our curriculum is currently fully inclusive. If a child with a more pronounced disability joined us then alternative forms of the curriculum would be provided. Currently every aspect of the curriculum is made accessible to all pupils in attendance
Lessons are responsive to diversity. Lessons allow children to work individually, with a partner, in groups and as a whole class. There is extensive peer support and	x			Children work in many different ways at school – individually, in pairs, small groups and whole class. Peer support is encouraged across the curriculum.

collaborative learning in support of those with a learning disability.
When planning the deployment of additional adults, there is a consideration of pupils with disabilities so that if needed, they benefit from high staffing ratios and smaller group activities in order to ensure their inclusion and raise attainment.	x			This is good basic classroom practice.
Staff recognise and allow for the mental effort/additional time required by some disabled children, e.g. using lip reading, processing time for children on the Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Spectrum.	x			Good classroom practice
When renewing computer hardware/software, machines and materials are chosen to support children with a disability, e.g. vocalising braille, touch screen, assistive technology.		x		Currently, this level of software/hardware is not required. Where needed, items such as e-readers have been utilised.
Provision of laptops is considered to aid recording and / or communication.	x			Yes. Use of software such as Flip Grid for children and staff
School visits are subject to a regular review to ensure increased levels of access or alternative experience.	x			Yes
The school links with other schools to share good practice.		x		Termly pyramid meetings are held to discuss all vulnerable children
Staff seek to remove all barriers to learning and participation. When curriculum units are developed the originators always ask if there could be a disability dimension.		x
Access arrangements are used when appropriate to support children with accessing assessments.	x			Yes
The school signpost children, young people and families to further support e.g. Together Information Exchange, Autism and Social Communication and Education Training Service (ASCETs), Autism Family Practitioners, Support, Advice, Information Doncaster,		x		Some support services signposted on our website

The school has procedures to ensure the rigorous maintenance of specialist equipment and facilities.				We have no specialist equipment
Emergency and evacuation systems set up to inform all pupils including children with SEN, including alarms with both visual and auditory components.				No visual components to fire alarm
Personal Emergency Evacuation Plans (PEEPs) are in place to provide people with any form of disability, who cannot be adequately protected by the standard fire safety provisions within a premises, with a similar level of safety from the effects of fire as all other occupants.	x			Plans are updated each year by the new teacher due to different staff and classrooms
With regards to ' Supporting pupils at school with medical conditions (2014) ', there is a policy in place for the effective and safe administration of medication.
